Words for the Week

David had experienced God's strength in protecting the sheep in his fights with lions and bears. David had practiced the presence of God so thoroughly that God's word, which he couldn't literally hear, was far more real to him than the lion's roar, which he could hear. He had worshiped the majesty of God so continuously that God's love, which he couldn't see, was far more real to him than the bear's ferocity, which he could see.

Message from the Christian Education Committee

We also need people to help out with snacks if you could assist us. We would need 10 snacks during the week if anyone is willing to donate a morning or afternoon snack on a specific day. We anticipate 50 campers and 10 leaders and the snacks should be peanut free. If you could donate a snack please call Maureen Nicholson (226-663-7372), Beck Tunks (519-425-1933) or the church office (519-485-3390) with the day that you could cover.
